Poor Ezzard Must Wait

Ezzard Charles is peeved no end because he'll have to wait until next year to get flattened by Rocky Marciano . . . Roland La Starza has beaten Ezzard to a September blasting at the mitts of the heavyweight champion, and it just isn't fair.

Rock's Brother Goes Pro

Signed the other day by Toronto of the International League, Lou Marciano, 18-yearold brother of Rocky, has been farmed out to Three Rivers of the Quebec Provincial circuit. The kid plays third base and, like Rocky, he's a good glove man. . . . Yes, he can hit,

A Helpful Horse Player

"With the Randall Park meeting coming up this week end," writes Short Jack of Maple Heights, "I would like to assist the thousands of other daily double players of this section by informing them that only five of the various double combinations paid off more than once at the 44-day meeting there last year. And none paid off as many as three times.

"The five numbers that hit twice were 15, 26, 52, 55 and 96. Always a believer in public service, I am only too glad to provide those figures, for what they are worth, to whomever they may concern.

"Yours for a not so rocky road to doublin'."
